

Australian Standard Business Reporting

In Australia, data standards enable software to automate compliance tasks by pulling information automatically from internal systems.

Dutch Standard Business Reporting

In the Netherlands, companies can comply with tax, business, and statistical reporting requirements automatically and electronically, using the same data. The Dutch SBR program includes voluntary, semi-mandatory, and mandatory participation by agencies.

